

Development Events

TOOLS FOR SOLIDARITY 30th Anniversary

Sustainable development interactive workshop

Speaker: Roisin McEvoy, Head of International Student Experience and Chair of the International Development Forum at the University of Ulster.

Date: Wednesday 20th August from 8 -10 pm

Place: Ballynafeigh Community Development Association. 283 Ormeau Road, Belfast, BT7 3GG

New economics and a New Society: A discussion on the possibilities and challenges

Speaker: Tony Weekes, former academic economist, now independent writer, speaker and researcher

- How is the economic system nowadays? Is it on a good track?
- What does "economic illiteracy" mean?
- What kind of political changes should we make for a more sustainable future?

Date: Thursday 21st August from 4 - 6 pm

Place: Ballynafeigh Community Development Association. 283 Ormeau Road, Belfast, BT7 3GG

The End of Poverty?

A documentary directed by award-winning director, Philippe Dia about the causes of global poverty and how wealthy countries take advantage of poor, developing countries.

Date: 23th (Saturday) August from 5 - 7 pm

Place: Lawrence Street Workshops. 1a Lawrence Street, Belfast, BT7 1LE

TFS is also organizing a series of public events. For further information:

www.toolsforsolidarity.com

 Tools For Solidarity

 @2Is4s

"We don't have to invent a better future - the ideas and evidence are already there!"